

PACA 2009

Security is more than guarding

NATIONAL PORTRAIT
GALLERY

MONDAY 28 SEPTEMBER 2009 – DAY ONE

8.45am Delegates to report to the main front door to be met by a Security Officer. National Portrait Gallery Risk Manager to welcome delegates in Terrace Room 1
Coffee/tea provided on arrival

9.00am Orientation brief

9.15am Director's welcome

9.30am National Portrait Gallery tour

10.30am Morning tea

11.00am National Portrait Gallery tour (continued)

11.30am Protective security risk reviews – Understanding Art Indemnity Australia's requirements – some practical examples
Craig Andrew, Senior Security Risk Management Adviser, Australian Federal Police and a representative from the Collections Branch, Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts

12.30pm Lunch

1.30pm Secure, track, audit and preserve collections using RFID Tagging
Doug Rogan, Senior Collections Manager, International Conservation Services

2.15pm Sharing benchmarking lessons
Craig O'Sullivan and Idris Said Jaaber

2.45pm Maximising the safety of children visiting cultural institutions
Helena Bezzina, Public Programs Manager, National Portrait Gallery, Peter Appleton, National Film and Sound Archive, Emily Pollnitz, Australian War Memorial and Libby Stewart, Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts

3.30pm Afternoon tea

4.00pm National Library of Australia site visit

5.30pm Drinks

King Edward Terrace
Parkes ACT 2600
Australia

Telephone 02 6102 7000
Facsimile 02 6102 7001

portrait.gov.au

PACA 2009

Security is more than guarding

NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY

TUESDAY 29 SEPTEMBER 2009 – DAY TWO

8.45am Delegates to report to the main front door to be met by a Security Officer. National Portrait Gallery Risk Manager to welcome delegates in Terrace Room 1
Coffee/tea provided on arrival

9.15am Site visit ActewAGL Call Centre

11.00am Morning tea

11.30am Emergency Management – How should cultural institutions manage fire and other emergencies?
Open discussion to be facilitated by Leon Cornish, Ferst Training Solutions and Senior Constable Steve Lindner, Australian Federal Police

12.30pm Lunch

1.30pm Business Continuity from a Security Perspective
Allan Joyce, Risk and Continuity Management

2.15pm PACA Vision Statement and Terms of Reference – Revisit and review
Open discussion

3.00pm Afternoon tea

3.30pm Using Technology to Secure Your Assets
Lance Heather, Senior Manager BioMetrics, Video Analytics, Solutions Specialist, NBDO, NEC Australia

4.30pm Forum photograph – Eastern forecourt

5.30pm Drinks

King Edward Terrace
Parkes ACT 2600
Australia

Telephone 02 6102 7000
Facsimile 02 6102 7001

portrait.gov.au

PACA 2009

Security is more than guarding

NATIONAL PORTRAIT
GALLERY

WEDNESDAY 30 SEPTEMBER 2009 – DAY THREE

8.45am Delegates to report to the main front door to be met by a Security Officer. National Portrait Gallery Risk Manager to welcome delegates in Terrace Room 1
Coffee/tea provided on arrival

9.00am Risk Management Desktop Exercise
Conducted by Mark Nash, National Portrait Gallery, John Santolin, National Gallery of Australia, Donna O'Brien Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts and Greg Seberry, Greg Seberry & Associates

10.00am Morning tea

10.30am Risk Management Desktop Exercise (continued)

11.30am Official activities conclude
Handover to 2010 host

12.00pm Lunch and lawn bowling
The Canberra City Bowling Club, Ainslie

King Edward Terrace
Parkes ACT 2600
Australia

Telephone 02 6102 7000
Facsimile 02 6102 7001

portrait.gov.au